By participating in this competition, the authors and schools agree that EU PRO Plus and the Delegation of the European Union to the Republic of Serbia (DEU) may also use the works for the purpose of their promotion, publicity, news, during educational workshops as well as information and related campaigns without the prior permission of the author

General rules of the competition

Participation in the competition is free of charge

Only one work per student can be submitted to the competition, regardless of whether the participant applies as an individual or as part of a school application

In case of group (school) application, the school must organise an internal competition open to all students and submit a maximum of five (5) best works to the competition

Works, in the form of illustrations, drawings, paintings or collages, must be in A3 format (42 x 29.7 cm).

The following information must be provided on the back of each submitted work

- Name and address of the school
- Full name of the student
- Full name of the professor who supervised the preparation of the paper
- Short textual explanation of the submitted artwork (up to 100 words)

The best artworks as well as the names of the authors will be listed on the EU PRO Plus calendar for 2022.

Authors and schools must guarantee the authenticity of the works as well as that the submitted artwork has not been previously published. All images used in this work must be in accordance with the applicable Law on Copyright and Related Rights of the Republic of Serbia. All works that do not correspond to the topic or do not meet the technical / author requirements as well as works that display inappropriate messages will be disqualified.

Competition for the most engaged school

In addition to competing for the best artwork of high school students, schools can compete and win prizes based on the effort they put into organising an internal school art competition. The professors of the participating schools should help the students and initiate a conversation on the topic of the competition and support them in the preparation of artworks through consultations and guidance.

The internal school competition must be documented and attached in the form of a short textual description accompanied by photographs and/or videos and sent together with the works in order for the school to qualify for the award.
