The European Union Local Development Programme - EU PRO Plus has initiated support in addressing territorial / sustainable urban development challenges through implementation of integrated projects deriving from territorial strategies, while building the capacities of the local and regional stakeholders

The Programme aims to improve management of territorial development and foster economic growth, social infrastructure and social cohesion.

EU PRO Plus is implemented with the European Union financial support of 40 million Euros. The Programme realisation is led by the Ministry of European Integration and implemented by the United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS).

The direct beneficiaries of the EU PRO Plus Programme are: the Ministry of European Integration, 99 local self-governments, local administration structures, regional development agencies, other business support organisations, micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) and civil society organisations (CSOs).

The inhabitants of the 99 cities and municipalities are the final beneficiaries of the Programme.

Enhance capacity for territorial development management

Support economic growth

Enhance social infrastructure and social cohesion

EU PRO Plus is based on the National Priorities for International Aid in the Republic of Serbia until 2025 (NAD) and relies on the good practices and achieved results of its predecessors, the development programs EU PROGRES, European PROGRES and EU PRO.

The twelve territories included in the Call:

Five wider territories - urban areas:

- Kragujevac with municipalities of Aranđelovac, Batočina, Knić, Lapovo, Rača and Topola;
- Niš with municipalities of Gadžin Han, Merošina and Svrljig;
- Pirot with municipalities of Babušnica, Bela Palanka and Dimitrovgrad;
- Užice with municipalities of Bajina Bašta, Čajetina, Požega and Priboj;
- Zaječar with municipalities of Boljevac, Knjaževac and Sokobanja

Seven narrower territories - urban areas: Bor, Kruševac, Leskovac, Loznica, Novi Pazar, Smederevo, Šabac

Selection of projects for application:

The Urban Area Development Council is to make a decision on the project proposals to be submitted within the call that are previously selected from the broader list of the strategic projects proposed by the working group for the strategy development.
